DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claim 15 is objected to because of the following informalities: it appears that claim 15 depends on claim 13 but claim 14. Appropriate correction is required.
2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
3. Claims 1-5 and 10-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Gebhardt (Des. 306,676).

Regarding claims 1-3, Gebhardt teaches a kitchen utensil comprising a tool and a handle having a V shaped cross-section. See Figs. 1-7.

Regarding claim 4, 5 and 12, it appears that the kitchen utensil is a single piece and is made of stainless steel. It is to be noted that using stainless steel to make kitchen utensils is well known in the art.

Regarding claims 10 and 11, the utensil is a barbecue tool.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. Claims 4-8 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gebhardt (Des. 306,676) in view of Prindle (4,317,284).

Gebhardt teaches the invention substantially as claimed except for the material of the utensil. Prindle teaches the use of stainless steel or synthetic polymer plastic to make a utensil. See first paragraph of col. 3. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to use stainless steel or synthetic polymer plastic to make a utensil for easily cleaning or for reducing the weight of the utensil.

5. Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gebhardt (Des. 306,676).

Gebhardt teaches one spoon. However, providing a utensil set comprising at least two spoons is routine skill in the art. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to stack at least two spoons on top of each other to save space.

6. Claims 13, 16 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Formo et al. (4,524,512), hereinafter Formo, in view of Prindle (4,317,284).

Formo teaches the invention substantially as claimed except for the material of the utensil. Prindle teaches the use of stainless steel to make utensils. See first paragraph of col. 3. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to use stainless steel to make Formo's utensils for easily cleaning.

7. Claims 13-15 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Garabedian (5,572,792) in view of Gebhardt (Des. 306,676).

Garabedian teaches a kitchen utensil set comprising a spatula, a brush holder and a fork. See Figs. 2-4. Garabedian fails to teach V shaped cross-section handles.

Gebhardt teaches V shaped cross-section handles. See Figs. 1-7. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to incorporate the Gebhardt's handle to the Garabedian's utensils since the Gebhardt's handle takes less material to manufacture.

8. Claims 19 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Garabedian (5,572,792) in view of Gebhardt (Des. 306,676) and Weber (Des. 364,784).

Garabedian teaches a kitchen utensil set comprising a spatula, a brush holder and a fork. See Figs. 2-4. Garabedian fails to teach a V shaped cross-section handle and a mounting hole on a handle.

Gebhardt teaches V shaped cross-section handles. See Figs. 1-7. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to incorporate the Gebhardt's handle to the Garabedian's utensils since the Gebhardt's handle takes less material to manufacture.

Weber (Des. 364,784) teaches a mounting hole on a handle. See Fig. 1. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to provide a mounting hole on the modified handle of Garabedian so that the kitchen utensil can be hung on a kitchen wall.

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-12 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

10. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

Art Unit: 3724

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
